

Jane Norman College is looking for an Early Childhood Educator to become our new Resource Centre Coordinator!

We are looking for an early childhood professional to work with the College and help organize, communicate, and coordinate all aspects of our Early Childhood Resource Centre

In addition to possessing a minimum diploma in Early Childhood Education the role requires:

- A self starter who can work to deadlines with minimal supervision
- An excellent communicator (written, oral, and interpersonal skills)
- A person who has technological capability or someone who has interest and aptitude in learning more computer skills (including Microsoft Office Suite)
- A person who has experience/understanding of play-based and reflective practices in early childhood
- A person with a valid driver's license and their own vehicle
- A person with understanding of Nova Scotia's early years community and its strengths and challenges

More specifics about the position can be found on our website!

Please email a cover letter explaining how your experience makes you a great candidate for the position and attach a resume.

Only candidates selected for interview will be contacted.

Cover letter and references may be mailed to: kim.elliott@janenorman.ca

This competition will close on 12 May 2017